

Doctors Services
A WELL Health Company

Take control of your uninsured medical services.

Are you trying to manage your uninsured medical services on your own with inconsistent billing processes and hours of time spent educating patients?

Doctors Services Group is your complete solution for effectively managing all your practice's uninsured medical services activities. From patient education to communications and administration, we take time consuming tasks related to billing uninsured services off your plate so you can focus on patient care.

A customizable program tailored for your practice.

Developed with both you and your patients in mind, we deliver a simple, convenient program that is easy for your patients to understand and your staff to manage.

Best Practice Patient Education

We help educate your patients about uninsured medical services and when they can expect to be charged.

- Comprehensive, customized office materials educating patients on what uninsured medical services are and how they are managed.
- Clear, customizable fee guides explaining cost for services not covered under provincial health insurance.
- Personalized patient communications with clear contact and payment details, sent by regular mail, and email.

Patient Communication and Billing

We take care of communicating with your patients and managing billing for uninsured medical services.

- Follow up reminders to patients who have not responded to their annual fee.
- Weekly invoicing for individual uninsured services and collection of overdue fees.
- Automatically issue receipts to patients after a payment is received.

Full-Service Administration

Our platform is customizable to meet the specific needs of your practice.

- Email, online or phone support for patients.
- Convenient online and phone payment options.
- Access to real-time program information online including patient status, payment status, and all program reports.

Doctors Services Group: Helping Doctors with the Business of Medicine.

Doctors Services Group, a WELL Health Company, is the industry leader in providing uninsured services billing programs.

We believe physicians should be fairly compensated for all the services they provide and educating patients on the value of uninsured medical services. We help physicians increase revenue, enhance efficiency, and improve doctor-patient communication.
